You cannot hope to build a better world without improving the individuals. To that end, each of us must work for his own improvement and, at the same time, share a general responsibility for all humanity, our particular duty being to aid those to whom we think we can be most useful.

Marie Curie

CQE Days 2020

Spring Meeting

Foreword

It is not the strongest of the species that survives, not the most intelligent that survives.

It is the one that is the most adaptable to change.

Charles Darwin

'New times, new challenges' was the driving engine for our adjustment to a new format of sharing our recent scientific advances. This short booklet compiles all the poster contributions of the CQE Days 2.0 meeting. This document introduces the work produced by the four interweaving thematic lines that the Centro de Química Estrutural strives to promote with Excellence.

The organizing committee would like to thank all the participants for their support and help in making the first truly CQE world event such a success.

A special thanks goes to the Session Coordinators, for their commitment to the success of this endeavour. Without the good relationship and communication established during the preparation of CQE Days, it would not have been possible for everything to work so well.

The organising committee is also thankful for the continuous support of the CQE President, Vice-Presidents, and Thematic Line Coordinators.

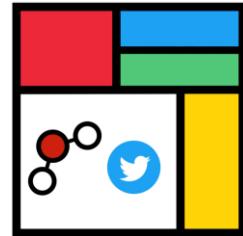

We believe this meeting showed the amazing work developed by our CQE community and its commitment in maintaining the Excellency that is recognized to CQE. This Booklet is the compilation of what was shown in the sessions as well as what was posted on Twitter.

The organising committee,

Marta Alves
Ana Cristina
Gonçalo C. Justino
Nuno Neng
Ana Ribeiro
M. Amália Soares
